The Yearbook (Our Cast of Characters)

Addie Singer: You. You're the star of the show. An aspiring singer-songwriter whose wit, sense of humor, and music helps you get through all the challenges of Middle School.

Geena Fabiano: Addie's best friend is a bit on the wild side. Geena's never satisfied with her daring fashions until she receives a warning from the principal – then she knows she's got it right. Geena feels it's her duty to keep Addie and Zach from committing acts of social recklessness.

Zach Carter-Schwartz: Addie's other best friend is part cool dude, part band geek/science freak. Zach definitely marches to the beat of his own drum and though the girls occasionally shake their heads at his antics, they admire his commitment to his serious causes.

Sue Singer: Addie's therapist mom is keenly aware of the interpersonal relationships and dynamics that go on between Addie and her friends. She's calm and has the ability to think before she speaks, which allows her to use her psychology training in dealing with her family.

Jeffrey Singer: Addie's dad owns a sporting goods store. Between him and Sue, Jeffrey's the more emotional of the two and, at the moment, he's having a difficult time watching his daughter grow up.

Ben Singer: Addie's older brother is a hunky, popular teenager that tries to make Addie suffer as much as possible with her pre-teen angst.

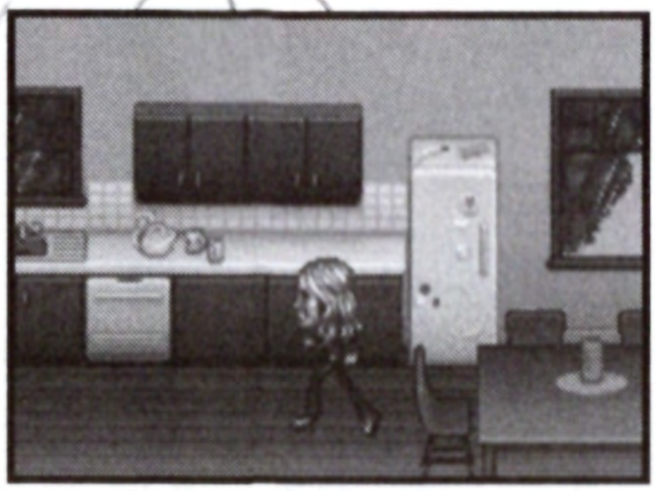

Maris Bingham & Cranberry St. Clare: "Burn!" Maris and Cranberry are Addie's elite rivals. Always sticking their noses up at Addie and her friends, their presence always signals trouble right around the corner.

Principal Brandywine: The voice of authority that rings through the halls of Rocky Road Middle School. Principal Brandywine and her motorized wheelchair wreak havoc on anyone in her path.
